Disclaimer

The information contained in the directory is for general information purposes only. While the VDDHH endeavors to keep the information up-to-date and correct, VDDHH makes no representations or warranties of any kind, expressed or implied, about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability or availability with respect to the information, products, services, or related graphics contained in the directory for any purpose. This directory is intended to be a helpful starting point for persons seeking services, but further assessment of any resource is the responsibility of those persons.

In compiling this directory, VDDHH has attempted to include as many relevant resources as it could. The inclusion or exclusion of a resource does not indicate or imply an endorsement or criticism by VDDHH. Likewise, any reference or link to a commercial product, process, service, or company does not indicate an endorsement of that product, process, service or company by VDDHH, and the omission of any such reference or link does not indicate disapproval by VDDHH.

Alternative Format

Upon request, this document is available in alternative formats for persons with disabilities.

Mission

The Virginia Department for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (VDDHH) works to reduce the communication barriers between persons who are deaf or hard of hearing and those who are hearing, including family members, service providers, and the general public.

Vision

The vision of VDDHH is a Commonwealth where persons who are deaf, hard of hearing, late-deafened or deafblind can fully participate in all aspects of life without barriers to communication.
